

Survey of Australia's Legal Profession, 2026

Researchers from the University of New South Wales are conducting an online survey of Australian lawyers, that is, people who have been admitted to the legal profession in any Australian jurisdiction.

Participation is voluntary. If you choose to participate you will be asked questions about the setting in which you practise law, your experiences and perceptions of the profession, and your demographic characteristics.

The survey takes around 20 minutes. At the end of the survey you will be given the option to enter a prize draw to win one of 5 x $200 Giftpay vouchers, as a token of our appreciation.

Full information about the study and the Participant Information and Consent Sheet can be found via this link or by scanning the QR code.
